WHAT MAKES US DIFFERENT

Life insurance you don't have to die to use

THE OLD WAY

Traditional life insurance pays only when you die — like an old rotary phone.

THE MODERN WAY

Living Benefits may let you use part of your coverage while you're alive — the smartphone version.

The same dollars can protect you three ways:

DIE TOO SOON

Death benefit for your family

BECOME ILL

Living Benefits while you're alive

LIVE TOO LONG

Cash value toward retirement

THE THREE NEEDS WE SOLVE

Every family faces three financial risks

1

DIE TOO SOON

Income and debts don't disappear when you do. A death benefit replaces your income and keeps the family's plan intact.

2

BECOME ILL

A serious illness can drain savings fast. Living Benefits may pay you while you're alive to cover bills and lost income.

3

LIVE TOO LONG

Outliving your money is a real risk. Cash value and annuities can provide income you can't outlive.

Term Life Insurance

“Renting” your coverage — protection for a defined period.

WHAT IT IS

Pure protection for a set number of years (10, 20, 30). The most coverage per dollar, with no cash value.

BEST FOR

Young families on a budget; covering an income or mortgage window during the years your family is most vulnerable.

WHY IT MATTERS

Maximum death benefit for the lowest cost today — a simple safety net while you build everything else.

Permanent Life Insurance (IUL)

“Owning” your coverage — it builds equity, like a home.

WHAT IT IS

Coverage designed to last your whole life. It builds cash value linked to a market index, with a floor (typically 0%) so a market drop doesn’t lose your value.

BEST FOR

Anyone who wants lifetime certainty, built-in Living Benefits, and a tax-advantaged place to build cash value.

WHY IT MATTERS

It never expires, it builds value you may use later, and it includes Living Benefits — not just a death payout.

TERM VS. PERMANENT

Renting your coverage vs. owning it

TERM — “Renting”

- Temporary — covers a set number of years, then ends.
- Lower cost up front.
- Usually pays only at death; nothing back if you outlive it.
- Premiums can jump sharply if you renew later in life.

PERMANENT (IUL) — “Owning”

- Lasts your whole life — coverage doesn’t expire.
- Builds cash value you may be able to use later.
- Includes Living Benefits for illness — not just death.
- Can be structured to pay for a limited number of years.

Both have a place. For a home you plan to keep — and a family you’ll always want protected — owning often wins.

Mortgage Protection

Protect the payment, not just the house.

WHAT IT IS

Life insurance built around your mortgage and the income that pays it, so your family can keep the home no matter what happens to you.

BEST FOR

Homeowners with a mortgage and people who depend on their income — the core of most first meetings.

WHY IT MATTERS

Your homeowners policy protects the house from fire and storms; this protects the payment. The family stays — no forced sale.

Limited-Pay IUL

Pay for a set period. Stay protected for life.

WHAT IT IS

Concentrate your premiums into about 10–15 years instead of paying for life. After the pay period, the goal is coverage that continues — with cash value still working.

BEST FOR

Peak earners who want to finish paying before retirement and free up future cash flow.

WHY IT MATTERS

Pay during your strongest earning years, then stop — while keeping lifetime protection and a growing cash-value bucket.

IUL for Retirement Income

A tax-advantaged “bucket” for income you can access in retirement

- Overfund a policy during working years; cash value grows tax-deferred.
- In retirement, you may access it through policy loans that can be income-tax-free if structured properly.
- No IRS income limits like a Roth, and built-in protection from market downturns (0% floor).

TAXABLE

Taxed as you go

TAX-DEFERRED

401(k)/IRA — taxed later

TAX-FREE

Roth & life insurance

Most families have the least money in the tax-free bucket — that’s the gap we help fill.

LIVING BENEFITS

Coverage that works while you're still living

- A qualifying illness may let you access part of your death benefit early — while you need it most.
- The money can help with medical bills, lost income, treatment, or simply breathing room.
- Most term and 'mortgage insurance' competitors only pay at death. This can pay you now.

MAY COVER EVENTS LIKE

Terminal illness*Chronic illness*Critical illness*Critical injury*Alzheimer's disease

Living Benefits are provided through optional Accelerated Benefit Riders, available on certain products and not in all states. Using them reduces the policy's death benefit and cash value and may be a taxable event.

Business Owner Solutions

Protect the business, the owner, and the family — with company dollars.

WHAT IT IS

Life-insurance-based strategies that protect the business and its owners: key person, buy-sell funding, executive bonus, and business-debt protection.

BEST FOR

Owners with partners, key employees, personally-guaranteed debt, or a succession plan to fund.

WHY IT MATTERS

If an owner or key person dies or becomes ill, the business can keep running, partners can buy out shares, and the family is protected.

Annuities & Retirement Rollovers

Turn savings into income you can't outlive.

WHAT IT IS

Fixed and fixed-indexed annuities that protect savings from market loss and can turn a lump sum (or an old 401(k)/IRA) into guaranteed lifetime income.

BEST FOR

People near or in retirement who want stability and income they can't outlive.

WHY IT MATTERS

Protection from market downturns plus an optional guaranteed income stream for life — peace of mind in retirement.

IT ALL COMES BACK TO TWO JOBS

Protect today. Prepare for tomorrow.

PROTECT TODAY

Mortgage covered · family stays in the home · income protected if you die or become seriously ill.

PREPARE FOR TOMORROW

Cash value and annuities build a tax-advantaged stream of retirement income you can't outlive.

The right plan does both at once — that's the Goodwill Way.

IMPORTANT DISCLOSURES

This presentation is for general educational purposes only and is not financial, tax, or legal advice. Please consult qualified professionals about your specific situation.

Living Benefits are provided through optional Accelerated Benefit Riders (ABR), which may not be available in all states or on all products and may have an additional cost; some riders are available at no additional premium on certain products. Receiving accelerated benefits reduces the policy's cash value and death benefit, may be a taxable event, and may affect eligibility for public assistance programs. Benefits depend on underwriting, product and state availability, the rider, and claim-time calculations.

Indexed Universal Life (IUL) is life insurance — it is not an investment and does not directly participate in the stock market. Policy loans and withdrawals reduce the cash value and death benefit and may have tax consequences; a policy that lapses with an outstanding loan may trigger a taxable event. Illustrated and projected values are non-guaranteed; actual results may be higher or lower.

Annuity guarantees, including any guaranteed lifetime income, are subject to conditions, rider charges, and the claims-paying ability of the issuing company. Fixed indexed annuities do not directly participate in stock or equity investments.

Guarantees are subject to the claims-paying ability of the issuing company. Life products referenced are issued by National Life Insurance Company, Montpelier, VT, and its affiliate Life Insurance Company of the Southwest (LSW), Addison, TX; National Life Group is a trade name. Property & Casualty and Health coverage is offered through the respective carriers shown. Company logos are the property of their respective owners and are shown to indicate carriers we represent. Products, riders, and features may not be available in all states.
